

A Child's Prayer for a Parent's New Marriage

Thank You God for Your great plan for my family. Before I was even born, You knew that this marriage between _____ and _____ would take place. I know that You know everything about each one of us. I believe that nothing is impossible with You. So I believe You are able to blend our lives together as a family.

Fill me with Your pure love for _____, my new step parent. Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart about _____ and _____ and their marriage be honoring and pleasing to You.

Fill _____ and _____ with the fruit of Your Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, faithfulness and self-control. Counsel them to resist fear and worry. Let Your faith become their faith. Give them Your supernatural wisdom as a spouse and as my parent.

Shield us all from the temptation to take sides. Help us to guard our hearts from being easily offended.

Let Your faith, hope, and love prevail in their marriage and our blended family.

In Jesus, I pray.

Amen

Scripture References

Jeremiah 29:11

Psalms 139:16

Luke 12:7

Luke 1:37

1 John 4:7

Psalms 19:14

Hebrews 13:4

Galatians 5:22-23

Philippians 4:7

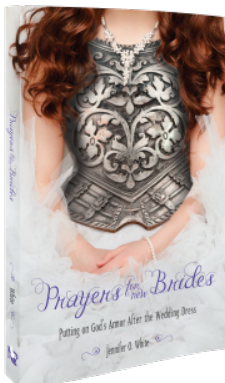

Revelation 14:12

James 1:5

Psalms 28:7

Proverbs 4:23

1 Corinthians 13:13

Courtesy of Jennifer O. White, author of Prayers for New Brides: Putting on God's Armor After the Wedding Dress. Available as a free download at PrayersforNewBrides.com.